Job Title: Director of Buildings and Grounds

Position Profile

Reports to:	Lead Pastor
Payment:	Salary
FT/PT status:	Full Time
Ecclesial status:	Non-Rostered
Fair Labor Standards Act status:	Exempt professional
Work Week:	M-F, occasional evenings and weekend hours

Position Overview (What)

The Director of Buildings and Grounds is responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of the buildings, mechanical and electrical systems, grounds, and related equipment. This includes routine and special repair/maintenance, care of church furnishings, custodial services, landscaping, mowing and snow removal. This person also manages relationships with related contractors, vendors and government inspectors. They work in close collaboration with the Lead Pastor, the Director of Administration and other clergy, staff directors and lay leaders of the ministry hubs (Worship, Faith Formation, Christian Care and Fellowship) to maximize the sustaining use of our facilities for Trinity members, friends and community partners.

Essential Functions (How)

To do this, the Director of Buildings and Grounds should focus on:

- Facilities Leadership: Develop and implement operational practices to sustain our buildings and grounds that support the effective day-to-day operations of the church as a welcoming, safe and sustaining place that serves the church and our community. Ensure that all tasks—from routine maintenance to major renovations—are completed with professionalism, attention to detail, and cost-efficiency. Apply technical knowledge and ingenuity to address challenges and opportunities in a cost-effective way. Anticipate needs and identify opportunities to improve processes, resources, and services to sustain our physical plant and optimize them to better serve the congregation and community.
- Collaborative Partnership: This person is directly accountable to the Lead Pastor, but should also work in close partnership with the Director of Administration and other staff directors and lay leaders to support accommodations for ministries, events and gatherings on campus. They should serve as a trusted advisor to the Property Committee and others involved in the major facilities and capital projects. They should communicate and consult with these collaborators effectively and often.
- People Development: Lead, mentor, and support the church's maintenance and custodial staff and volunteers. Create a culture of empowerment, accountability, and growth, ensuring that each team member's gifts and talents are recognized and utilized.
